SCHLOSS CLAIMS THE SPECULATOR BILL HAS DEFECTS

Alderman Tells Why He Introduced Minority Report at Board Meeting.

FAVORS RESTRICTION.

"If the System Is to Be Swept Away," He Says, "Let It Be Done Properly."

Alderman Joseph Schloss, of the Committee on Laws and Legislation, who introduced at yesterday's meeting of the Board of Aldermen the minority report on the proposed revocation of the sidewalk ticket speculators license law, furnished his reasons to-day for making his

He is of the opinion, he said, that constitutional provi ions will prevent an enactment of the law as suggested by the majority report, and that a ruling by the courts, or an opinion by the Corporation Counsel, would sustain his

"I admit that the sidewalk ticket spec ulator business is an evil," said the Alderman, "but I doubt if the board can dispose of the matter in the way the committee has suggested. We cannot dictate the price at which tickets shall be sold, any more than we can dictate how much this or that butcher may charge for a pound of meat.

"The whole matter is one which requires a great deal of thought, but I stand for the abolition of the sidewalk ticket speculator nuisance if it can le exally be accomplished, it is true that bucket speculators are now permitted Cto do business in front of private prop-terty, under license from the city, and I can readily see that if that license power is removed the pelice may drive the speculators away. But what is to the speculators away. But what is to prevent these men from selling tickets under a peddler's license or selling chewing gum for a dollar a package. With a theatre ticket as a prennium?

"My only purpose in sending to the board a minority report was to make foroible these suggestions in the hope that when final action is taken no loophole will be left and no discrimination will be made against the ticket speculators in favor of the agencies who might continue to do business. If the system is to be swept out of existence I say let it be done properly.

"In making my report I had no other object in mind than a desire to see a proper legislation invoked to protect the public fully."

FAMOUS LOOKOUT INN DESTROYED BY FIRE.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 18.— Famous old Lookout Inn. on the crest of Lookout Mountain, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The owners had just arranged to sell the inn for $135,000. There was $26,000 insurance on the hotel and its furnishings. Four cottages and contents were destroyed, entailing a loss of $16,000. Last night there was a streak of fire almost from the top to the base o Lookout Mountain, along the line of the incline railroad, and men fought to prevent its spread to the timber and the many cottages which dot the slope of the mountain. The fire started in the south wing of the hotel, supposedly from a defective flue.

THE various means of communication devised and used from time to time are recognized as definite landmarks in the world's progress. Each has served or is serving its useful purpose; some have passed away; others remain and will remain.

This is the electrical age. The transmission of intelligence by electricity has changed the habits of man and made the world immeasurably more compact. The telegraph, the cable, the telephone; each aids and supplements the other. These three potent agencies meet different needs, serve different purposes, but without conflict work to a common end-that of bringing mankind into closer social and commercial relations.

The creation of a comprehensive telephone system marked a new era in the art of communication. Telephone service is unique in that it affords opportunity for the direct and immediate exchange of ideas. Through its efficient aid social and business methods have been revolutionized. Its value to each individual and each community increases with its growth. Its maximum value will be reached when one comprehensive system, reaching all and covering the entire land, is fully developed.

The telephone, once a private convenience, became in the course of a few years a public necessity, a great public utility. The transition brought new responsibilities and obligations. Our aim shall be, as it has been, to fairly meet and discharge every proper responsibility and obligation. Our conception of these we shall state in our next bulletin.
